FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

RACINE COMMUNITY FOUNDATION AWARDS SCHOLARSHIPS

RACINE (August 2018)

The Racine Community Foundation has awarded 67 scholarships totaling $93,786 to Racine County college-bound students for the 2018/2019 academic year. All scholarships were awarded on a competitive basis and are a part of an increasing number of legacy scholarships established within the Racine Community Foundation by Racine County individuals, families, businesses, civic leaders, and educators. The names of this year's recipients are followed by the college or university each student plans to attend in the fall.

Five students were awarded the Bud and Mary Androff Scholarship. This scholarship fund was established in 1996 through a grant made by Bud and Mary Androff to benefit students who show interest in the areas of general education, physical education or human relations. This year's recipients are Brooklyn Bull (UW-Oshkosh), graduate of Union Grove Union; Amanda Knapp (St. Norbert College), graduate of Union Grove Union; Sarah Kozenski (UW-LaCrosse), graduate of Walden III; Elijah Scheckel (University of Kentucky), graduate of Union Grove Union and Kyle Simonsen (Winona State University), graduate of J.I. Case.

Allyson Weisbrod (UW-Whitewater), graduate of Washington Park, is the recipient of the Henry P. and Marjorie W. Bruner Scholarship. The Bruner Scholarship Fund was established in 2010 by Mr.

and Mrs. Bruner's children to honor their parents, and is awarded to a student who demonstrates an interest in pursuing a Liberal Arts degree.

Alex Pope (UW-Madison) is the recipient of the Tom George Scholarship. Mr. and Mrs. Donald H. George established the scholarship fund in 1985 in memory of their son, Tom. This scholarship is awarded to a graduate of William Horlick who will attend UW-Madison.

Established in 2007 to benefit a full-time student entering the sophomore or junior year at UW-Parkside, the Alan B. Grossberg Scholarship was awarded to Sarina Kuechle (UW-Parkside). The recipient of this scholarship must declare a major in one of the traditional sciences.

Abigail Fehler (UW-Madison), graduate of Waterford Union, is the recipient of the Karle P. Guth Scholarship. This scholarship fund was established in 1997 by the children of Karle Guth to honor their father. Recipients must attend UW-Madison in pursuit of an undergraduate degree in agribusiness, secondary education, history or political science.

In 2009, the Hallam Family Scholarship Fund was established by Robert and Victoria Hallam in memory of their parents and their uncle, William E. Hallam. The scholarship benefits graduating seniors of Washington Park who demonstrate an interest in a career in the field of visual arts. This year's recipients are Garrett Allen (UW-Parkside) and Shani Salinas (Gateway Technical College).

This year's recipient of the Sonja Henning Scholarship is Sydney Pitrof (Marquette University), graduate of William Horlick. The Sonja Henning Scholarship was established within the Racine Community Foundation in 2014. The scholarship honors Sonja Henning, an attorney and former collegiate and professional women's basketball player.

The Ted and Elizabeth Jacobson Memorial Scholarship was established in 2014 by brothers Steve and Fred Jacobson, to honor their parents, Ted and Elizabeth Jacobson, who believed every child's education was important. This year's recipient is Lincoln Bargender (University of Notre Dame), graduate of J.I. Case.

Carson Bragg (UW-Milwaukee) and Alyssa Rohner (UW-Oshkosh) are the recipients of the Johnson-Dukleth Scholarship. Established in memory of Gilma Dukleth by her family in 2006, the scholarship is awarded to graduating seniors of Waterford Union who will attend a four year college or university.

Thirteen students from Union Grove Union were awarded the Leopold K. Kerschitz Scholarship. The "Mr. K" Scholarship, as it is known, was established in 1995 by Leo Kerschitz to encourage students with academic potential to pursue education beyond high school. This year's recipients are Karsten Acker (UW-Madison); Brendon Belongia (UW-Platteville); Jackie Bianchi (UW-Madison); Janice Fonk (Carthage College); Amanda Knapp (St. Norbert College); Megan Koch (MN State University – Mankato); Benjamin Maier (UW-River Falls); Samuel Maier (UW-Parkside); Dylan Olson (UW-Madison); Jacey Staven (UW-Oshkosh); Jorey Staven (Marian University); Mari Suokko (Ferris State University) and Baylie Weis (University of Iowa).

William Labeau (Milwaukee School of Engineering) is the recipient of the Jesse and Otto Last Scholarship. Established in 2016, this scholarship is awarded to a graduate of William Horlick, who will be attending the Milwaukee School of Engineering to pursue an engineering degree.

In 1983, Mrs. Florence E. Lockwood and her son, James E. Lockwood, Jr., established the Lockwood Scholarship Fund. This scholarship is designated to benefit graduates of Washington Park High School. Six students were awarded the Lockwood Scholarship this year. They are Anna Greulich

(UW-Madison); Janelle Norton (Andrews University); Joselin Rodriguez Santiago (Alverno College); Austin Siegal (Waldorf University); Megan Steensen (UW-Milwaukee) and Andrew Steffen (Jacksonville University).

Alisson Anguiano Salas (UW-Parkside), graduate of Walden III, is the recipient of the Shirley Nelson Scholarship. In 1997, Shirley Nelson established this scholarship fund to benefit students who show steady, constant improvement over the course of their high school career.

The Onnink Family Scholarship Fund was established in 1994 by Allen and Florence Onnink. This scholarship is awarded to Racine Unified School District students who demonstrate high academic potential. This year's recipients are Kayla Gallert (UW-Platteville), graduate of J.I. Case; Kyle Martin (UW-Madison), graduate of J.I. Case and Kyle Semrad (Edgewood College), graduate of Walden III.

In 1986, James C. Thompson, former Principal of Washington Park High School, established the Park High School Hall of Fame Scholarship Fund. This scholarship is awarded to graduates of the school who have attained high academic achievement, participated in extracurricular activities, and demonstrate good character, poise and conduct. This year's recipients are Michael Nielson (UW-Whitewater) and Caitlin Mertins (UW-Whitewater).

The Perkins Family Scholarship Fund was established in 2008 and is awarded to Racine area high school students who will pursue a post-secondary education. The recipients are: Rayven Craft (Carthage College), graduate of William Horlick; Brandon Gister (Gateway Technical College), graduate of Washington Park; Alma Meza-Cisneros (UW-Parkside), graduate of St. Catherine's; Kyle Simonsen (Winona State University), graduate of J.I. Case; Vincent Vanko (Fox Valley Technical College), graduate of the Prairie School; Charmaine Weatherspoon (Gateway Technical College), graduate of the REAL School and Carter Zawicki (UW-Milwaukee), graduate of Racine Lutheran.
